HUTCHISON & STEFFEN
ATTORNEYS

Heather Armantrout is a senior associate whose practice focuses on medical malpractice defense and healthcare law. After fifteen years as a registered nurse, she began her second career as an attorney in 2017. Her extensive experience in the healthcare industry allows her to offer clients a unique perspective and understanding.

Heather graduated in the top third of her class at the William S. Boyd School of Law at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas, where she received Cali awards—Lawyering Process II (legal writing) and Law and Religion with Ninth Circuit Judge Jay Bybee—and the Scribe Award for legal writing. After graduation, she served as senior clerk for the Honorable Jerome T. Tao of the Nevada Court of Appeals. From there, she started her practice in the medical malpractice defense setting.
