Experience

The attorneys of Hutchison & Steffen bring to their clients an extensive history in the practice of appellate law.

They have participated as counsel in cases before the United States Supreme Court, Federal Appellate Courts, and the Nevada Supreme Court. The Firm's appellate litigators are admitted to the U.S. Supreme Court, U.S. Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals, U.S. Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals, U.S. Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals, U.S. District of Columbia Court of Appeals, and state appellate courts in Nevada, Utah, California, Massachusetts, Ohio, and the District of Columbia. In addition, the Firm's litigators have served as law clerks to judges in federal courts of appeals and the Nevada Supreme Court.

The Importance of Experienced Appellate Counsel

Appellate Litigation is a distinct practice area requiring a sophisticated understanding of appellate procedure, advanced legal analysis, and persuasive written and oral advocacy.

Appellate litigators, frequently working on matters that have already been tried, must work closely with trial counsel to properly outline and preserve legal issues for appeal.

Once a matter is before an appellate court, counsel must have the experience and skills to present logically developed and legally supported arguments to the court.
