Cheryl C. Bradford is a partner in the Firm's Las Vegas office. She is a highly experienced lawyer with twenty years of practice in civil, construction, business-related litigation, insurance bad faith, and wrongful death. She represents a diverse range of clients, including those in the construction, retail, restaurant, and hospitality industries, premises owners, and transportation companies. Cheryl has significant court time attributed to arguing complex issues in both Nevada state and federal courts.

Cheryl's meticulous attention to detail and strategic mindset make her a trusted advocate for her clients, where she brings a wealth of knowledge to her cases. She provides comprehensive legal analysis ensuring clients receive the representation they deserve.

Cheryl earned a B.A. in Psychology from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas and a J.D. from the UNLV Boyd School of Law, graduating Cum Laude in December 2005. Recognized as a Top 100 attorney in 2022, Cheryl's dedication, combined with her exceptional education, positions her as a highly sought-after litigator in the field of business and commercial law. Cheryl is admitted to practice in Nevada.
